Konstantinos steps down as football coach

by Rudy Ruettiger

Head football coach John Konstantinos resigned his position Saturday in a meeting with Athletic Director Mike Mullally.

His resignation came on the heels of the Panthers 10th loss of the season and their 14th over the past two years.

Along with Konstantinos' resignation, his entire staff of offensive backfield, coach Ed Helies, offensive line coach Jim Gudger, defensive coordinator Bob Oetting, defensive ends and linebackers coach Harvey Willis and secondary coach Jerry Brown also resigned.

"I resigned because after looking at last week's game films I saw we just weren't getting anything out of them (the players)," Konstantinos said.

"We were going backwards and we were not doing anyone any good."

Konstantinos will be leaving his post officially after Eastern's last game of the 1977 season Saturday against Evansville at home.

The head coach said he was not feeling any direct pressure from the administration but he said "I was always feeling subtle pressure (from the administration)."

"I created much of the pressure on myself though," he added.

Mullally's only statement about the resignation was "I was really sorry to see this happen. John is one of the finest people I've ever known. And I wish him the best of luck."

In the three years Konstantinos held the reigns of Eastern football he compiled an 8-21-2 record with the Evansville game yet to be played.

After last season's record of 5-6, the closest Eastern has come to surpassing the 500 mark, there was hope of a fine season this year, but a number of happenings prevented the winning season.

Konstantinos pointed out three losses as being critical to the team's downfall.

"The loss to Northeast Missouri was hard," he said. "We played well and we would of liked to win that one." Eastern lost the game 10-7.

But Konstantinos did not think the Northeast Missouri loss was as crucial as the defeats to the University of Northern Iowa and Central State of Ohio.

"I think that did it. The guys subconsciously began to lose faith," he said. "What they lost faith in I can't tell you. It was a very difficult loss to Central State."

The Panthers lost to Central State in the fourth game of the season in the final seconds 25-24.

"Up until that point we had been playing well," he said.

The biggest problems Konstantinos said he dealt with this year was the lack of experience in his ball players and coaching staff.

"We were breaking in new people and an entire new coaching staff and it takes time to get continuity among the people you are working with."

Konstantinos also put some of the blame on himself when he said he divided his time too much with both the offense and defense.

"I was getting things done halfway. I should have spent my time one way or the other."

Injuries also hit the Panthers throughout the season but Konstantinos said "Despite the injuries we should have won."

At this time Konstantinos has not made any plans after leaving Eastern.

Konstantinos had very high praise for the job the coaching staff did this season despite the losses.

"They've worked very hard and (See KONSTANTINOS, page 11)

CIPS workmen work on a gas main at the corner of Sixth and Lincoln streets where a gas leak was discovered. Some officials site the leak as the cause of an explosion which injured Jack Lawyer, an Illinois Consolidated Telephone Company workman Monday morning. (News photo by Karen Griffin)

Workman injured in explosion, gas main break possible cause

by Karen Griffin

An Illinois Consolidated Telephone Company (ICTC) workman received first and second degree burns from a gas explosion that occurred Monday morning near Seventh and Lincoln streets.

Jack Lawyer, 29, of 306 W. Polk St. was listed in satisfactory condition Monday at Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center from injuries received in the 10:30 a.m. explosion. The blast occurred as he was stepping out of a manhole, where he and fellow workmen were repairing underground telephone cables, Richard Webb, ICTC director of public affairs, said.

Lawyer's clothing caught fire from the explosion, but the flames were extinguished by Donald Honn, a fellow worker who rolled Lawyer on the ground, Webb said.

"We feel the gas ignited for some unknown reason," Webb said.

Webb added the men were not using electricity, torches or smoking while working at the site.

A gas-main break was later discovered by Central Illinois Public Service Co. (CIPS) workmen in front of the Old Main Marathon Service Station.

Charleston Police Chief Maurice Johnson said his department decided to close off an eight block area as well as evacuate the Marathon Station, the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority house and the Short Stop Restaurant as a precautionary measure.

However, Myerscough said he thought the natural gas had gotten into a conduit, a pipe which holds the telephone cables, and traveled to the corner where the explosion occurred.

Myerscough added that "the gas that was present there ignited."

He said the leak had occurred probably "near the time when this (the explosion) happened since a fire Friday near Sixth and Lincoln streets would have caused an explosion if gas had been present.

Speaker to call for adviser's removal due to 'conflict of interest'

by Dave Shanks and Richard Foertsch

Student Senate Speaker Jack Chor said Monday he will ask for the removal of Don Cook as student government adviser in Thursday's senate meeting because of a potential conflict of interest between that role and Cook's role as Panhellenic Council adviser.

Chor's comments came after a closed meeting between candidates for executive office, Executive Vice President Steve Murray, Elections Committee co-chairpersons Jack Overstreet and Murphy Hart, Bill Clark, area head of the university union and student activities, and Cook.

Chor said he believes the potential for conflict has always existed but has been precipitated by an incident in which Cook advised a sorority president that she was the potential object of a smear campaign if she remained involved in the student government campaign.

"By his own admission to me, he (Cook) wears too many hats and sometimes can't keep them straight," Chor said.

Cook spoke Thursday to Karen Martin, president of Alpha Phi sorority, to warn her of a potential danger that her name and that of her sorority could be smeared by someone.

Martin was told by Cook that she was possibly the target of a smear campaign by an unidentifiable person or persons because of her support for the Holden slate.

Cook would not reveal who "they" might be, contending originally that "they" was "like an entity" but later said, "Yes, there are names, but I'm not sure if you can actually substantiate that."

U.S. sells wheat to Soviet Union

WASHINGTON(AP) - The Agriculture Department on Monday announced a sale of 100,000 metric tons of wheat to the Soviet Union, possibly the first in a new round of purchases by the Soviets in the coming year.

According to department records, the sale was the first to the Soviets to be reported officially since Sept. 19. Rumors have circulated for weeks that the Russians were in the market to buy more U.S. grain.

The 100,000 tons reported Monday raised to 2.4 million tons of grain, including 1.1 million tons of wheat and 1.3 million of corn that the Soviet Union has purchased for delivery in 1977-78.

Demonstrator slapped with jail term

EXETER, N.H. (AP) - Another of the Seabrook 1414 demonstrators was slapped Monday with a stiff jail sentence for his role in the May Day occupation of the atomic power plant site.

Court Dorsey, 27, of DeKalb, Ill., was found guilty of criminal trespass by Judge Wayne Mullavey in Rockingham County Superior Court.

He was sentenced to three months in the county jail. Appeals trials now underway from last spring's massive occupation of the power plant site may trigger the next escalation by militant anti-nuclear activists fighting to keep the station from being built.

Wives' rights added to divorce law

SPRINGFIELD(AP) - A new Illinois divorce law became effective last month, granting additional property rights to wives and moving the state within a whisker of allowing no-fault separations.

The measure still requires a judge to find one or the other spouse at fault. In other respects, however, lawyers are still finding out how the 15,000-word statute will change courtroom procedures.

The law allows husband and wife to set out grounds for divorce in legal papers without having to cite the gory details of their deteriorating relationship. That spares the court and public a lot of acrimony and hopefully prevents further flareups because of what one spouse believes are unfair allegations.

Candles possibly caused hotel fire

MANILA, Phillipines(AP) - Candles lit during a power outage from a typhoon may have caused the fire that swept through the Hotel Filipinas in downtown Manila early Monday, killing at least 42 persons, including one American, authorities said.

Fire Marshall Francisco Agudon predicted a toll of at least 50 dead. He said firemen had seen more bodies in the burned-out shell as they battled the fire.

Carter backs watered-down job bill

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Carter endorsed a watered-down jobs bill Monday that would set a four per cent unemployment rate as the goal for 1983 without committing him to set up new programs to reach the target.

The measure, worked out in months of talks between White House aides and congressional sponsors, would require the president to submit annual economic reports to Congress setting out specific goals for unemployment, production, income and productivity.

Flashing traffic lights on Lincoln to be repaired in next two weeks

by Mark Gentry
Street lights at Lincoln Avenue and University Drive intersection should be repaired within two weeks, Director of Public Affairs Steve Childress said Monday.

The lights currently are operating as flashing red lights instead of regular stop lights.
"The circuits went out on the lights about three weeks ago and were replaced with these type of lights because they were the only kind available for city use," Childress said.
"The lights were originally installed while Dan Walker, (former governor), was in office and the company which was responsible for these type of repairs has since gone bankrupt," he added.

Faculty research not to equal larger institution's-Collier

by Marcel Bright
Vice Presidential candidate Robert Collier said Monday that faculty research at Eastern should not be expected to be maintained at the same level as larger institutions.

Collier, former president of Northeastern Oklahoma State University in Tahlequah, spoke to various faculty and student groups as part of his on campus interviews for the position of vice president of academic affairs.

"Research is part of the function of any university," Collier said, in a discussion with the three academic councils. "But we can't emulate U of I (University of Illinois), that's not what this university is for."

"This university can't base raises on public service and research if resources aren't there," Collier said.

"Faculty should do some research and should be encouraged too. But this is a regional school and the first concern should be educating," he added.

During his interview, Collier commented on retrenchment, grade inflation, and attendance policies.

Collier said there were several alternatives that "could prevent massive retrenchment," pull back from expansion.

"Whenever there is, retrenchment the faculty gets paranoid," Collier said. To avoid that "you could not give raises and keep everyone."

Collier said a better solution would be to hire a great number of part-time personnel to teach certain courses.

Collier said one example of such a plan would be to follow the proposal used when he was at Oklahoma State.

"We hired a judge to teach certain political science courses, a lawyer to teach business law, a CPA to teach a particular accounting course," Collier said.

Collier said this type of plan worked "pretty well. When we had to cut back we simply let them go."

On the issue of an attendance policy, Collier said he personally has taken an "idealistic view," but as an administrator he would have to take a "pragmatic view."

"I would have to disagree with grades being given based on attendance," Collier said.

"I never took off (for attendance as an instructor), but as an administrator I have to take a different view," he said.

Collier added that any attendance policy he would enforce "must be a well defined policy."

As an administrator, "you have to be accountable to different agencies," he said, citing agencies for the Basic Education Opportunity Grant (BEOG), Illinois State Scholarship Commission (ISSC) and veteran education scholarships because of the money received from the agencies.

Keep courage

Editor,

The heartfelt "thanks" of Elections Co-Chairperson Murphy Hart and myself are extended to a number of y'all out there.

Thanks to those senators and associates of student government who have helped us weather the storms of human error, criticism, and ridiculous smear efforts by that leech faction during our efforts to bring EIU a fair election.

Thanks to those individuals who have risked the wrath of the leeches to help us expose the low brand of intimidation which has crept into some high places.

Thanks to those candidates who have maintained their respectability rather than succumb to temptation or offend the sensibility of the University with appeals to the cheapest of emotions.

And a special note of gratitude to students in general -- you have been besieged by that curious horde of campus politicians (the best as well as the worst), you have remained sane in the midst of this electoral fruitcake, and tomorrow many of you will make the effort to vote for the few who can serve with perspective.

My personal efforts as a member of senate have taken several different channels.

First, I tried to support programs and positions which to the best of my judgment were hallmarked by need, reason, and good taste and motivations and I tried to defeat ideas which lacked in these criteria.

Second, I attempted to be responsible to my constituents as well as my conscience, e.g. RHA, Greeks, organizations, and individuals.

And third, I vigorously opposed that narrow, selfish brand of dishonesty and fraudulent exercise of power practiced by a small group of individuals at EIU.

Unfortunately, the third channel was where my biggest impact was; fortunately, however, our efforts have been successful in senate and hopefully at the polls today, the Greeks are enlightened and no longer universally afraid, cooperation reigns even in controversy, and the really creative people, e.g., Tom Dersch, Steve Murray, and many others, have had their ideas heard for a change.

Best of luck to the winners and losers tomorrow. I hope that those who are elected have broader interests and loftier goals than mere election to a small group at a small university here

Individual diversity contributes to realistic policy and mature personal conduct. And diversity, maturity, and courage are qualities we all need more of as people; we certainly need them in student government.

End of my swan song - hope you liked the tune.

News propaganda

Editor,

Why does the Eastern News take sides in this election? How can we students allow our newspaper, the most influential student publication, to become a propaganda machine for either side in this election?

The staff of the News has chosen to take sides and support one candidate over the other. How can a publication that, in theory, represents the entire student body take sides against part of the body it represents?

I believe that the News should retract its support of any candidate and stay out of politics and stay on the News.

The entire opinion of the Eastern News is based on the opinions of eight people on its staff.

We as students cannot allow these eight people to use the News as their own personal propaganda machine!

The News is financed by student funds and the editor and staff are not elected representatives of the student body.

Why should the opinions of eight people be considered the opinions of over eight thousand.

Or better yet, why should the opinions of these eight people come before anyone elses on this campus just because they work on the News.

If anything, they should refrain from giving any opinion at all in order to insure a fair and unbiased election. This they obviously have not done.

Fund Rugby

Editor,

As our rugby season has drawn to a close, and student senate elections approaching, I would like to say a few words.

I feel our club has completed a highly successful season; sporting a 9-3-1 record and a second place finish in the Illinois Intercollegiate Rugby Tournament.

Our rugby club has accomplished this in three semesters of existence, and totally with the funding of members of the club.

This means traveling to five away games and a two-day tournament with funds out of our own pockets.

The club involves approximately thirty students at the present time, not to mention numerous loyal fans.

This fact, plus our accomplishments, can only be considered an asset to Eastern Illinois University.

It is my opinion the time has come when involved students should receive financial assistance from our activities fee.

With student senate elections approaching I would like to urge all students who have witnessed the unique excitement of rugby to get out and vote for the candidates who will support us.

These men are Leo Zappa and Doug Blanchard in the Greek District and in the At-Large District, Roger Heubner and Michael Metz.

Mike Hummert

Member E.I.U. Rugby Club

Holden, et al

Editor,

In the upcoming Student Government election there are four people who will do an excellent job for students if elected.

Tom Holden has proven himself to be a dynamic and forceful leader, capable of new ideas which are of tangible benefit to students. His opponent has yet to demonstrate those capabilities.

Don Dotzauer, candidate for Executive Vice-President, is without question the best possible choice for that office. The interest, motivation and ability he has demonstrated makes him the only choice for that important office.

Tom Dersch, candidate for Financial V.P., has the desire and inherent ability to expand the office he seeks. His ideas on further investments and scholarship programs can only aide the student body.

Jack Chor, as Speaker of the Student Senate, is also a much more viable and forceful candidate than his opponent for the office of Coll. Barg. Rep.

These four people have the motivation, the ability, and the experience to make Student Government work for the Students. I urge their election.

Rick Ingram

Financial Vice-President

Holden, Hudson

Editor,

With all the controversies presently surrounding this election, I would like to take this opportunity to discuss some good characteristics of the candidates.

I am endorsing the executive ticket of Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, and Tom Dersch, as well as Mark Hudson for residence hall senator.

I feel that there should be more input into our student government, and these candidates will be effective representatives of the students.

I have known Don Dotzauer for over 2 years and have the privilege of working with him on the Triad Council.

He is an extremely hard worker and has been very instrumental in introducing changes to the Triad.

He has never hesitated to voice an opinion, and is fully capable of handling the job of executive vice president.

As vice president to the council, Weller Hall president, and representative to RHA, Mark Hudson has been very effective in assuring the Triad be represented in campus activities -- including the blood drive and Homecoming parade.

His enthusiasm and understanding of the students' needs will enable him to be a very active member of the senate. The choice is yours.

Karen Cronin

Secretary-Triad Council

Vote Holden slate

Editor,

Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, and Tom Dersch have exhibited outstanding qualities that are essential to the offices of President, Executive Vice-President, and Financial Vice-President.

Tom Holden has exemplified quality leadership capabilities as Chairperson of the Student Senate Housing Committee.

His work with the tenant union, housing seminars, and expressed concerns for a legal service, tuition, etc., have shown Tom's increasing ability to develop and initiate programs that are tangible to Easterns' students.

Don Dotzauer's experience is evidenced by a long list of work on projects in both the Student Senate and the Residence Hall Association.

He has demonstrated a clear understanding of the functions of both the university and Student Government.

Perhaps even more important is Don's unsurpassed enthusiasm that accompanies the initiation and completion of projects.

As Co-Chairperson of Campus Relations, Tom Dersch has worked diligently on numerous projects.

Prior to becoming a Senator, Tom prepared an excellent report to the Senate concerning WELH. Tom's objectivity is a quality that has carried him well through his term as a Senator.

The past records of all three candidates exhibit a combination of objectivity, hard work, effective production, and a clear understanding of students wants and needs on Eastern's campus.

I encourage all students to vote for Holden, Dotzauer, and Dersch for a continuation of effective, objective, and hard working executive officers in E.I.U. Student Government.

Election shock

Editor,

As past chairperson of the Great and Terrible Elections Committee, I find the actions of the present Chairperson, Jack Overstreet, shocking to my conscience.

He has given in to pressures from his friends, specifically Tom Holden, a candidate for Student Body President, and comprised the very principles of his office.

Tom Holden has good reason to be running scared facing such a strong candidate as Karen Anderson, but that is no reason for Jack Overstreet, Tom's fraternity brother, to prejudice the committee actions in Tom's favor.

I always thought Jack Overstreet a stronger person than to give in to Tom Holden's out-of-line requests.

I only hope that Jack, to retain at least a sense of decency, will step down as Elections Chairperson and not disgrace the office which I worked so hard to keep clean and unbiased.

I also hope that Tom Holden will stop pushing his friends to do his "dirty dealings" for him.

Mike Baum

Vote for change

Editor,

Having been a senator for three semesters, I thought I had seen all that there was to see. Oh, but I was wrong. I have watched in anguish as senatorial candidates promised to work for the students and then work in the opposite direction.

A good example of this is Mark Learnard, who turned out to be a bigger joke than his ads. I have witnessed one senator continually attempt to impede progress through his knowledge of Robert's Rules of Order.

People like these have made the senate a three ring circus through their various techniques. No wonder redistricting took over three years!

As ludicrous as this election has become, I think it should be put in historical perspective. To do this, however, I must resurrect the great and terrible Elections Chairman from last year, who was a lot more Terrible than he was great.

Not only did he stack his committee with his fraternity brothers, but he also closed it so no one else could join.

Once the committee was this thoroughly corrupted, they then attempted to rule a candidate off the ballot on a technicality that was so trivial and absurd, and reeked so obviously of a political smear that the senate immediately overturned it.

One interesting sidelight to this is that Craig Courter was instrumental in the committee decision and one of its most ardent defenders.

This semesters' election committee, acting upon recommendation of one of its members unanimously voted to reprimand two candidates for their unethical actions. Constitutionally, they could have taken votes away, but instead they chose the lesser route and merely handed out a reprimand. And if the facts to the case were wrong, why didn't they appeal it to the Supreme Court? Probably, because they didn't have a legal leg to stand on. Interestingly enough, Craig Courter is now the arduous defender of the candidates. Oh, how he plays both sides!

But, when they try to cloud the issue by adding the irrelevant feature of fraternity membership, again I am upset.

Murphy Hart, the Co-Chair is not Greek. Only one member on a committee of ten is in the same fraternity as candidate Tom Holden.

Their charges are intended only to confuse the facts since "they" don't feel the students are intelligent enough to see through it. The "they" are the same people who use the Greek advisor to deliver personal threats.

But because of tactics like this, who can blame the students for being apathetic. When certain students perpetrate scandal for their own devious, self-centered reasons, the average non-political student who doesn't really know the facts is bound to be turned off.

So I plead to everyone to look beyond the smoke screen so artfully prepared. Don't let the dubious tactics of a few ruin it for everyone.

There are responsible candidates who can achieve things for the students. In numbers we can triumph over the lowlife self-centered mudflingers who give students a bad name in the eyes of the administration. But your vote is needed to accomplish the necessary changes, so please vote this Wednesday.

Joe Dawson

Vote Anderson

Editor,

As the Student Government elections are fast approaching, it is necessary to point out a highly qualified slate of students who are running for the Executive Offices, this slate includes Karen Anderson, Mark Petrus, Stephen Fears and Judy Remlinger.

As a student in my fourth year on Eastern's campus, I feel that I can honestly say that never before have I seen a slate more interested in the concerns of the students.

Ms. Anderson has been involved in Student Government since her high school years, a fact which may not hold too much weight in some persons eyes, but when you stop to realize that she became a page in the Illinois Senate the second semester of her senior year, one has to take into consideration each candidates past experience.

Karen has been involved in E.I.U. Student Government for the past three years with the exception of one semester at Illinois State University during which she uncovered a scandal within the executive officers.

Even under threats of physical violence, she stood her ground and fought for the rights of the students. Has anyone made note that Ms. Anderson brought back from her term at I.S.U. the ideas to start the Student Buying Card, the Student Legal Service as well as the Tenant Union, which she worked many long hard hours on to get funding for but which was overlooked in view of a giant T.V. screen for the Union?

Ms. Remlinger is running for Collective Bargaining Representative, a position which one of her former opponents stated is a useless office.

Yet how can our voice in such matters be useless? Does the student's interest end when we're sure we'll be in class? I suppose some feel that it is not necessary to make sure we keep our qualified instructors and we keep classroom size down as much as possible, is it?

Judy has been assistant to Student Body President, chaired a committee to review the Judicial Board of the Student Government, chaired the Academic Affairs Committee as well as started a revision of grade appeals.

Past experience and qualifications are very important in any endeavor and in this case should hold a lot of weight in how you vote in Wednesdays election. It therefore is up to you, the students of Eastern to weigh the fact and vote for those that you feel that will represent you to their full capacity, a job which Anderson, Petrus, Fears, and Remlinger will do.

Diana Nichols

No puppetry

Editor,

I am writing this letter only because I have been accused of a great many things in this campaign and I feel that the "truth" should be told.

The present Student Senate has done nothing but fight this entire semester. At the beginning of this semester I introduced some proposals, to various Senators, that would have helped to prevent a large amount of this internal fighting. All of these proposals were turned down.

Included among them was a proposal that would have removed the elections committee from the politics of the Senate.

The refusal of the Senate to instigate this proposal is beyond belief considering all of the past and present problems with elections.

I will make only one campaign promise, and that is to reintroduce these measures at the first Spring Senate meeting.

I will further promise to do my best to implement the more than 100 suggestions that I have received from students while campaigning.

The Athletic Club Board was one of the suggestions I received last Spring.

The Senate has shown its disinterest for the students in doing nothing to implement this proposal, even though a majority of the students passed the proposal last Spring.

As for my "honesty", I would like to point out that last Spring I voted in the elections committee to rule one of my friends off the ballot on a minor technicality.

I think that I have always been honest with my fellow students and I will continue to be.

I have no "puppet" strings attached to me either, (in case you're wondering).

I have always weighed all aspects of the problem and then voted for what I thought was best for my constituents and for what was fair to all.

I hope that you will cast one vote for me on Wednesday, November 16. Thank you.

Forget deals

Editor,

Let's forget about the mudslinging, the allegations of harassment and all other types of political dealings when we go to the polls Wednesday.

Let's remember that the issues and candidates' qualifications are the matter at hand.

In the past, Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, and Tom Dersch have proven their worthiness as hard working senators.

Their efforts have shown results that have directly benefited the students at Eastern.

We are speaking of their individual efforts in getting crosswalks leading from Carman to campus, putting up a ride board in the Union, and the Housing seminars providing off campus information to students.

These projects can be compared to the lack of productivity on the part of the opposing slate.

When you go to the polls on Wednesday, forget what has disillusioned you about the candidates' campaigns, and remember who can serve you in executive offices the best.

Needs extreme

Editor,

The Student Government election on Wednesday November 16, holds extreme consequences for the student body at Eastern.

Granted, this may sound highly dramatic to many but I stress my seriousness.

Student Government definitely has its limitations yet the significant role it can and does play is providing student input and to clarify the services available to every student at the university.

The need for honest, competent and proven hard working students whose obvious main concern is not themselves is the foundation for selecting the new executive officers.

Holden, Dotzauer, Dersch and Chor are the only candidates that can be chosen in this election to fulfill these needs.

In closing, I only ask that you vote on Wednesday-a vote for integrity.

Julie Sullivan

Politics too far

Editor,

The time has come to clarify one of the many unanswered questions about the upcoming Student Government elections.

I am endorsing Tom Holden for

president, that is a known fact, since my name appeared in one of his recent advertisements.

In reference to a telephone call I received on Monday November 7th from Karen Anderson, I would like to make one point understood by all . . . The call in no way constituted harassment, coercion or threats against me.

However, for two and a half years, I have been observing our Student Senate through a knothole in the fence and I have seen enough.

From Chizmar's regime to the present, I have seen the games. By the games, I mean the political shenanigans, including stuffing ballot boxes and the support of a Greek candidate just because he or she is from a "certain" house or is a popular item.

It is time to end the self-serving interests of a select few seeking personal amusement and strive for improvement for all students.

Innocently, I volunteered to endorse a candidate who I feel would serve the students' best interests (I do not doubt the potential of either Holden or Anderson.)

As a result, I am now subjected to snide comments, criticism as to the value of friendship, and uncalled for rot. Of course, I am not the only one, there are others and maybe I am speaking for them too.

As a student, I have a right to my opinion, to support who I want no matter what. The unethical goings on has destroyed the credibility of many of our student activists.

As a Greek, I see the system crucifying itself. Rushing towards ruin in a blind rage.

Political strategies do have a limit and when it comes to the rehashing of a person's past and their moral competency, it has gone too far.

Elect Holden slate

Editor,

On November 16th the students of Eastern again have the opportunity to shape the composition and direction their student government.

Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, and Tom Dersch are the most competent, dedicated, and responsible candidates for Student Body President, Executive Vice-President, and Financial Vice-President.

Tom Holden is an innovative leader with the ability to perceive and act on student problems.

As a Student Senator and Chairperson of the Housing Committee he instituted such creative programs as a Tenant Seminar and a realistic Legal Service Program.

Tom Holden's dedication, enthusiasm, and experience qualify him as the responsible choice for Student Body President.

Don Dotzauer has experience in many areas of student leadership as he is presently a Student Senator and President of the Triad.

His desire to increase the role of student input into the academic decision process of the university will benefit all students.

Don Dotzauer's knowledge of academic affairs and ability to work with all types of students make him as the most qualified choice for Executive Vice-President.

Tom Dersch has served all students in a responsible and admirable fashion during his term as an At-Large Student Senator.

He has the ability to research problems in a manner which result in realistic, feasible solutions.

His knowledge and understanding of the student fee system and his past dedication easily qualify him as the most competent choice for Financial Vice President.

Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, and Tom Dersch can be trusted to act responsible and in the best interests of the student body.

Please support Holden, Dotzauer, and Dersch on November 16.

Steve Murray
Executive Vice President

Vote Holden...

Editor,

As the students active in the residence halls we have had much contact with Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, and Tom Dersch. Their past records shows that their interest lies with the Residence Halls.

Their commitments i.e. RHA, Senate Committees: Housing, Political Studies, Campus Relations and their work with the off-campus seminars are only a few indications of their dedication to Eastern students.

Because of these and numerous other reasons we feel that Holden, Dotzauer and Dersch should be supported by all students living in residence halls—as their records indicate they will serve us!

Deb Devine
Donna Tygart

...vote Anderson

Editor,

I cannot believe that a sophomore is even being considered for Student Body President.

I have been a student at Eastern for 3 1/2 years and I know that the problems which our Student Body faces need a mature knowledgeable voice.

I do not feel Mr. Holden has had enough experience to supply this voice.

I therefore strongly urge all students to vote for Karen Anderson, with her 4 years of experience, for your next Student Body President.

Dan Petesch

Martin bravest

Editor,

As an off campus resident and a staunch independent I find the opportunities to praise the Greek District far and between, but Karen Martin, president of the Alpha Phi sorority is the exception.

Miss Martin's decision to support the Holden, Dotzauer, and Dersch slate instead of the Greek Districts candidates was the decision of a person who would not stoop so low as to sell out to those who feel they have some God given power to tell people which candidates to endorse.

For Miss Martin to endorse the choice of the Greek Caucus would have been the easy way out.

Holding the office of president of her sorority is proof enough for me that Karen Martin is concerned with the issues of the Greek District and is not out to intentionally irritate Chip Liczwek, Don Cook or the Panhellenic Council.

I myself have not decided who will receive my vote in the coming election but Karen Martin evidently feels the slate of Holden, Dotzauer, and Dersch is the one that will do the best job.

She undoubtedly knows her candidates platform, she helped pay for one of their ads, and knowing that must know their stand on issues concerning the Greek District and feels they are the best choice for her organization as well as the entire student body.

In conclusion I would just like to say to Miss Martin that whatever Mr. Cook, Mr. Liczwek, or the Panhellenic Council feel there are students at Eastern that admire you for standing up for what you believe in. Maybe she should be running for office.

Illogical logic

Editor,

As a concerned student, I feel compelled to respond to the November 14 letter to the editor by Mr. Holzer and friends.

Mr. Holzer is concerned that "justice and democracy" are being denied in the current campaign. An underlying theme of the letter is the concern that the Sigma Chi Fraternity is perhaps too heavily involved in the campaign.

As Mr. Holzer correctly indicates, Tom Holden is a candidate for President and seven other members of the fraternity are senate candidates.

I believe this indicates a sincere desire on the part of these students to work to improve conditions for all students - not the vested view of any one group.

But if you believe Mr. Holzer's underlying logic, please also consider the following facts: eight candidates for student senate were born in the month of February, four in late January.

Certainly this large number of Aquarians seeking elective office also undermines the equity of representation.

Who will represent the Sagittarians on campus? The Geminis?

Mr. Holzer and friends advance inferences which cannot be logically supported on even an elementary level.

I hope the students will select candidates on the basis of merit and competency rather than group membership.

Jim Curtis

Maltbia views

Editor,

Once again I am writing to the editor in an effort to voice my views and opinions to the masses.

I realize as a freshman there are many issues I am unaware of as are many of you.

Being elected to the senate would mean I would become more aware of these issues as would you for I intend to make sure the students are kept aware.

I have heard, as I'm sure many of you have heard, that the senate is to be compared with a circus, viewed as a joke.

I believe that something should be done about this and that a good start to remedy the situation would be to get more students involved and in a unified manner.

I guess you could probably call this my platform. I prefer to think of it as goals of the students as a whole.

I won't make any political promises, except to say that I would do my best, if elected, to follow the voices of the people and try to deliver what the people want.

After all, isn't that what the Senate is supposed to do? Please vote Nov. 16th.

Trish Maltbia

Tactics appalling

Editor,

I am appalled by the campaign tactics used by Karen Anderson's slate in their attempt to win the election for the office of Student Body President, Executive Vice President and Financial Vice President.

Ms. Anderson and company besides demeaning the offices they strive to win, add to the arguments of students that say "student government is a farce".

Her or her comrades in using these Richard Nixon style tactics give the student body good reasons for supporting her opponents, Holden, Dotzauer and Dersch.

We the students are tired of hearing about a Richard Nixon in Washington that we don't want one on this campus.

Ms. Anderson to listen to her preachings must think she is God's gift to student government here and also at I.S.U.

The only reason that you can gather by her speeches as to why she is running for President is to foster her own political career.

I think Ms. Anderson and her named and unnamed comrades owe the student body an apology for their "dirty politics".

Nick Lloyd, RHA Rep.
Douglas Hall

Holden 'line'

Editor,

I am tired of everyone running on a platform of clean government and after they get into office becoming more corrupt than their predecessors.

I am speaking of Tom Holden who is running for Student Body President. He has been involved in shenanigans all the while he has been in office, and now he is having his fraternity brothers use their influence in an attempt to smear his opponent.

I've had enough of Tom Holden's 'line', and I think its time he be made accountable for his actions to the students.

Jonny Thomas

Anderson best

Editor,

Karen Anderson is no doubt the best of the two for the office of student body president.

Karen's dynamic performance as collective bargaining agent and involvement in AISG is outstanding.

If AISG lacked organization, Karen has nevertheless contributed highly towards benefits to students.

The Eastern News criticism of Karen is appropriate, unjustified and therefore null and void.

Her contributions to Association of International students and AIS office portrays her devotion, competency and good leadership.

Holden and his tenant-landlord relations on the other hand is incomparable to Anderson's achievements and ability for the office.

Karen Anderson's choice of running mates is perfect and well qualified.

Karen has the potential, experience, enthusiasm, and dedication as the outstanding candidate we want for the office of student body president. Just join the word Anderson.

Bias no issue

Editor,

This letter is in response to Mary Bennett's letter appearing in the November 14 issue of the Eastern News.

Let's follow Miss Bennett's advice of "Tell the Truth and Don't be Afraid."

Are you really one to talk about morals Miss Bennett? Can you honestly say that the motion you proposed was your motion? Are you not really acting as a puppet of a certain faction?

Now let's deal with your accusations towards Mr. Overstreet. According to you, Miss Bennett, an elections chairperson must be meticulous in just enforcement of election rules and dedicated to these duties.

Mr. Overstreet and the election committee carried out the enforcement of election rules.

Letters to the Editor

Are you saying that because the election committee followed the rules and reprimanded those who broke the rules Mr. Overstreet should be removed as election co-chairperson?

Are you not really upset because your side finally got caught breaking the rules?

You claim that Mr. Overstreet is biased and therefore cannot carry out his duties. Everyone is entitled to his opinion.

The Constitution of the United States of America guarantees every citizen freedom of speech. Are you trying to deny Mr. Overstreet his constitutional rights?

In the national elections the election judges are either republican or democrat. Are they not biased? But yet to the best of my knowledge candidates are still fairly elected.

I am going to be working at the polls on Wednesday. My name has appeared in an ad endorsing certain candidates. I have worked very hard campaigning for these candidates because I believe in them.

I guarantee to you one thing Miss Bennett, that my opinions will in no way cloud or bias my duties as an election judge on Wednesday.

Finally I would like to say that Jack Overstreet is one of the best student senators ever to serve on this campus. He is fair, levelheaded, openminded and doing a good job of carrying out his duties as election co-chairperson.

I would just like to add that the people Jack Overstreet has endorsed,

Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, Tom Dersch and Jack Chor are excellent candidates and will serve the students well if elected.

I wholeheartedly encourage all students especially those living in the residence halls to vote for Holden, Dotzauer, Dersch and Chor on Wednesday, November 16.

Donna Tygart

Fair play asked

Editor,

This letter protests the campaign procedures conducted by Karen Anderson's slate and their supporters.

We feel that this type of "Dirty Politics" is below the dignity and caliber of the students and far below that expected of those running for executive offices.

It is our hope that all the students of Eastern will not be deceived or taken in by any of these underhanded political tactics.

We, the undersigned, encourage the use of fair play during this campaign. As students deserving qualified, responsible leadership, we demand it.

This letter was signed by 10 students

Dirty business

Editor,

This letter is directed to Student Government candidates.

I love your tactics for getting into office. I really think we should have people like John Haldeman and Richard Nixon come in and give awards and speeches on how to improve on your methods on ruining each other.

I would love to see you invite the U.S. Senate in for a grand old inquest and indict you. all. We could even set aside a week of school to celebrate this.

We could even have the football team come in and act as "Hit Men" and beat you to a pulp.

In summary, you have taken something as nice as a student government election and turned it into a Watergate. You have kept my faith in the fact that politics at any level in the United States in a dirty business.

Lawrence "Pudgey" Tourijigian

Editor,

This Wednesday the students of Eastern will choose the Collective Bargaining Representative. This office is crucial in preserving student rights and should be looked at seriously when voting.

Jack Chor, current Speaker Student Senate, is without question the most effective, mature, and intelligent candidate for this vital office.

Jack Chor's proven responsibility and dedication, along with his excellent relationship with our administration, will guarantee Eastern students an effective, realistic voice in collective bargaining negotiations.

The importance of this office cannot be over emphasized. We urge all students to make the responsible choice and vote for Jack Chor as your Collective Bargaining Representative.

We, the Students of Eastern Illinois University, desiring to maintain academic freedom, academic responsibility, and student rights, and to foster the recognition of the rights and responsibilities of students to the University and the Community do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution of the Student Government of Eastern Illinois University.

Article I - Composition

The Student Government shall consist of three branches - legislative, executive, and judicial.

Article II

A. Membership

1. The Senate shall consist of thirty senators.
2. They shall be apportioned in the following manner:
  - a. Nine senators to represent all Off-Campus students except those living in an organizational house.
  - b. Nine senators to represent all students living in Residence Halls.
  - c. One senator to represent all students living in an Organizational House.
  - d. Eleven senators to represent the total membership of the student body At-Large.
3. Senators must live in the district they represent, during their term of office.
4. No person shall hold the office of Senator who is not in good academic standing.
5. Senators elected under the old districting proposal who have full-year seats will be allowed to complete their terms.

B. Elections

1. Elections shall be held on the third Wednesday in November, and on the third Wednesday in April. If either of these days is not an academic day it will be changed to the most appropriate academic day. This change will be made by a two-thirds vote of senate.
2. Each senator will be elected for a one year term and will be eligible for re-election.
3. New members will take their seats the first meeting of the semester following their election.
4. In the fall semester, 5 Senators will be elected in the At-Large district, 0 Senators from the membership of the Organizational House district, and 5 Senators from each of the remaining districts, Off-Campus and Residence Hall. In the spring semester, 6 Senators will be elected in the At-Large district, 1 Senator from the membership of the Organizational House district, and 4 Senators from each of the remaining districts, Off-Campus and Residence Hall.
5. The election bylaws will govern anything not specified herein.

C. Vacancies

1. An open seat shall be filled by the unseated candidate receiving the highest votes in the most recent election; provided the student is still qualified unless he or she declines. In the event the student is not qualified or declines, order of succession shall coincide with the election vote totals.
2. Said student shall fill the seat until the next regularly scheduled election.
3. Any seat that opens 10 weeks after the beginning of the Semester, shall remain open until the next Semester.
4. If there are no eligible students to assume the seat, the seat shall remain open until the next regularly scheduled election.

D. Meetings

1. Regular meetings of the Student Senate shall be held at least once per week during fall and spring semesters.
2. The legislative leadership committee, speaker, a majority of the senate, or the student body president may call a special meeting of the senate in order to act on a special point of business specified by the caller.
3. A meeting may be cancelled, postponed, or changed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

4. A quorum shall consist of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate.

5. All meetings of the Senate shall be open to the public except when closed by two-thirds vote of the membership and in accordance with public law.

6. Meetings shall be presided over by the Speaker of the Senate elected each semester from its own membership, or the Speaker's representative.

7. Meetings will be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, except where inconsistent with this constitution or the Student Government Bylaws.

8. Attendance

- a. A student senator will be required to attend all regularly scheduled meetings.
- b. Roll Calls will be taken at the beginning and at the end of every meeting.
- c. An accumulation of six unexcused missed roll calls, as described above, will result in the automatic dismissal of said senator.
- d. Excuses may be granted by the speaker whose decision may be reversed by a majority vote of the senate.
- e. A student senator will be required to attend all special meetings provided said senator was given prior notice of said meeting.

E. Powers and Duties

1. The Senate shall at the first meeting of each semester elect a Speaker to preside over meetings. Upon election of the speaker, the Speaker's Senate seat shall be filled according to Article II, C.1. The person filling the seat shall remain seated until the end of the semester.
2. The senate shall, when it deems necessary make recommendations to the proper authorities concerning anything lying outside of the senate's jurisdiction.
3. Appointments
  - a. The senate shall approve by two thirds vote of the senate membership all presidential appointments of Supreme Court Justices.
  - b. The senate shall approve by two-thirds vote of the senate membership all presidential appointments to student-faculty boards, and the University Board.
4. The senate shall establish all levels of the judicial system not specified in this constitution.
5. The senate shall approve all student government budgets.

6. Student Activity Fees

- a. The senate shall have the power to advocate and suggest the amount and usage of the student activity fees to the Board of Governors through the President of the University, provided that such action shall require the consent of a majority of the members of the senate.
- b. A student body referendum shall be held before the student senate recommends a proposed student fee increase. This referendum is for information purposes only.
- c. The senate shall not, under guise of alternative rhetoric or otherwise perform any act which has the effect of increasing or recommending any increase in student fees unless such action shall be done in accordance with the above procedure.

7. Removal

- a. The senate shall have the power to remove from office any student body officer, supreme court justice, any member (student) on student-faculty boards, or University Board coordinators and chairman by a two-thirds vote of the entire body after a fair hearing.
- b. The process of removal shall be specified in the Student Government Bylaws.

Article III Executive

Diligent practice, years of training produce student music recital series

by John Cook

Hours of practice and years of training will culminate in a series of recitals from mid-November to December for Eastern's junior and senior music students.

The first recital, a junior-senior recital, will be presented, featuring Karen Feighner playing double bass, and Lisa Bartling on the cello at 2 p.m. Friday in Dvorak Concert Hall.

Other recitals include Tim and Robin Craft - trombones, at 8 p.m. on Monday, Mark York - piano, 8 p.m. on Nov. 29; Brenda Cook - trumpet, Virginia Shoene - piano, and Amy Farmer - piano at 2 p.m. on Dec. 2; Dave Swaar - trumpet and Patricia Cobel - vocal at 2 p.m. on Dec. 9.

Rhoderick E. Key, chairperson of the Music Department, recently said, "We require recitals just for the experience of performing. Music was meant to be performed. You can study, talk about, and teach music, but until you perform it, it hasn't been consummated."

Recitals are required for all performance majors and those planning to teach. A 15-minute recital is required for sophomores, but the length of performances doubles each year after.

Bartling, a junior music education major from Charleston, began instruction on the cello in fifth grade, she said.

Pieces to be performed in her concert Friday are Sonata No. 3 in G Minor," accompanied by Gretchen Tracy and the first movement of Beethoven's "Trio, Opus 1, No. 1," with Otha Day on piano and Michele Mariage on violin.

"My mother suggested I play the cello. She complained a violin would hurt her ears too much," Bartling said.

She began preparation in September for the upcoming recital. "The reason why I chose these pieces is because I love Bach and Beethoven's works," she said.

Rehearsing for a recital is a painstaking process, requiring hours of practice. Bartling said she works at least two hours each day alone, plus numerous other practices with her pianist and the trio.

Also playing with Bartling will be senior Karen Feighner, who will play the double bass.

"I joined band in junior high, starting with the clarinet. My band director in high school suggested I learn to play the double bass for experience sake. While at Eastern, I switched my major from clarinet to the double bass," Feighner said.

Junior Becky Pennington, left, and senior Anne Stimblin heartily belt out a song in the Music Theatre's first dress rehearsal of "The Merry Wives of Windsor" to premier Friday at 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre. Performances will continue Saturday, Sunday and Monday. (News photo by Bob Nasenbeny)

For the past three summers, Feighner has been studying with Warren Benfield, a double bassist with the Chicago symphony.

Student Body.

4. Appointments shall require 2/3 vote of approval by the membership of the student senate.

5. Terms shall be for two years, or if filling a vacancy for the remainder of the previous justice's term. In cases of the Supreme Court the term of office shall be for a period lasting from the time of appointment and approval and for as long as the appointee is enrolled at Eastern Illinois University, or terminating with a resignation, whereupon the vacancy will be filled by an appointee of the Student Body President, summer term shall not affect tenure of office.

6. Appointments to fill summer semester vacancies shall require 2/3 vote of approval by the membership of Student Senate.

7. The justices shall be chosen from either the graduate or undergraduate student body.

8. A quorum for a hearing shall be four justices.

Delete IV, A, 1, b, 8

Add at IV, A, 1, b 8: "A majority of a court shall be a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the court is necessary for a decision."

This provision, modeled after the Illinois Constitution, is designed to prevent a minority decision from becoming rule of law. In our instant case, since it takes four judges for a quorum, it would also require total agreement of those judges for a decision to be rendered. For example, if the bare minimum of four judges was present, it would require a 4-0 concurrence for that decision to become rule of law.

9. Add at IV, A, 1, b, 9: "Openings on the courts shall be published in the 'Public Notice' section of the Eastern News, within one week of a vacancy in the court."

This provision is designed to create a public awareness of court openings and thereby provide a more equal opportunity for participation in the judicial system.

c. Advisors

1. The advisor of the organization or his appointed representative (faculty member-graduate student) shall be the advisor to the organizational court.

2. Separate advisors to the University Court, and the Supreme Court shall be appointed by Vice-President for Student Affairs. No person shall serve as advisor to more than one court at a time.

3. The advisor shall be an ex-officio, non-voting member.

4. Responsibilities.

a. Shall determine if counseling shall take precedence over disciplinary action in the lower courts. The decision subject to appeal by the student to the University Court.

b. Cases must be submitted to the advisor of the appropriate court, who shall keep a log of the cases and refer them to the courts.

c. Co-sign with the chief justice of the respective court the correspondence pertaining to the disciplinary action taken by the court. The signature of Dean, Student Personnel Services, or his designated representative is necessary in the case of recommendation of suspension or expulsion from the University.

d. Provide for the continuity of the court system.

e. The advisor or his representative shall be present at all hearings.

Add at IV, A, 1 d.:

1. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall be appointed by the President and approved by a two-thirds majority of the Senate.

2. Responsibilities

a. Shall keep a permanent log of all-court cases.

b. Shall keep two copies of briefs, arguments, decisions, and other relevant materials from all Supreme Court cases. One set of copies shall be kept at the Clerk's place of residence. The other set shall be kept on file in the Student Government Offices.

Adviser removal to be sought

At Monday's meeting, Chor, Overstreet and others said they repeatedly asked Cook who "they" were, but he would not say who "they were or if "they" could be substantiated with names.

Clark said later Monday evening, after consultation with Vice President for Student Affairs Glenn Williams, that possible legal implications could occur if the names of those who might be involved in possible harassment of Martin or any others involved in the campaign.

The matter is to be discussed with Board of Governors legal council Tuesday to determine if the university could be liable.

Clark would not reveal knowledge of any names "because people have said don't do anything until we know where we stand on the particular subject."

Should legal council advise Williams that there is no libel potential, Clark said, "Then I don't see that we have any particular complications. Then Don can tell the story."

Cook said Monday night that he

"probably" would reveal any information he might have concerning anyone, whom he believed might be involved in potentially wanting to damage Martin's reputation.

When asked if "they" is a person, Clark responded, "Yes, I think everybody agrees with that."

"I think there are sets of circumstances that involve people that were involved in his (Cook's) decision to talk to the girl (Martin)," Clark continued.

Concerning Chor's intention to ask for his removal as student government adviser, Cook said, "I definitely feel some alienation with some of the people in student government now. I am very disturbed."

"I feel I had been able to serve those groups I advise. In this particular case, (his advising Martin) my concern for 90 girls was the wrong thing to do. My motive was to not let anyone be taken by surprise."

He continued, "This is my first student government election and I have learned an awful lot, but I don't think there is really a conflict of interest."

Clark, who advised both student government and the Panhellenic Council for four years, said, "I'm not ready to deal with it (the request for removal) because things are so emotional right now."

"People are so concerned about a number of things, including the elections and their feelings about all the parties involved in the controversy, that I don't think coming out with a statement will be very positive."

Dorm bunk-beds available in special RHA project

by Rich Bauer

Contracts are now available at the Housing Office for bunk bed rental for next semester, Residence Hall Association (RHA) President Rod Hasler said Thursday.

Hasler said students can pick up the contracts whenever the Housing Office is open and have until Dec. 2 to do so.

Rental cost for the bunk beds is $20 per semester with a $10 deposit required per contract, Hasler said.

The bunk beds will be available to everyone in the residence halls and the rental program will be similar to the refrigerator rentals for residents.

The bunk beds can be rented for either one semester or for the whole year.

Hasler said that although the university provides metal frame bunk beds which are used in "overcrowding situations," the RHA's bunk beds will have more eye-appeal.

"I hope people won't be afraid to give them a try," Hasler said.

"I'm really happy about the project since it's the first service provided by the RHA, which is usually a policy-making body. This really rounds out the abilities of the RHA," he added.

Hasler said the project is an RHA "attempt to help the people in the residence halls and I hope that people will make use of them (bunk beds)."

The rental program has been under consideration by the RHA since the beginning of this semester.

Konstantinos, assistants resign posts

never hung it up," he said. "They got better and better as a staff. Their preparations for the games were better every week."

"They were here until 11 p.m. or later with me banging away trying to win."

In building a winner Konstantinos feels he needed two more years at Eastern.

"I don't think you turn a program around in a short time unless you have players when you step into the program and there has been a winning tradition at the school."

Konstantinos continued "I am not happy with resigning, it is not something I enjoy doing. I don't take it lightly," he said. "It is best if I get out of the way and maybe they will move ahead. They should move ahead with the football players they have here."

When coming to Eastern Konstantinos had set goals and the most important one was to bring Eastern a winning football program.

"I feel bad about not doing what I set out to do," he said. "Mentally you do everything you know is right but you lose confidence when after you change things you go back and check and you are doing the same thing you were doing before."

Majority support Holden slate as groups endorse candidates

by Julie Seymour
A majority of student organizations contacted Sunday which are endorsing candidates for Wednesday's student government elections have endorsed executive candidates Tom Holden, Don Dotzauer, Tom Dersch and Jack Chor, all student senators.

Holden, a sophomore, is running against senior Karen Anderson, currently student collective bargaining representative, for student body president, while Dotzauer, a junior, is competing with junior Stephen Fears for executive vice president.

Dersch, a sophomore, is running against junior Student Senator Mark Petrus for financial vice president and Chor, currently senate speaker, is running against junior Student Senator Judy Remlinger for collective bargaining representative.

Carman Hall, the Residence Hall Association (RHA), the Triad, the Greek Caucus and Pemberton Hall all endorsed candidates last week.

The RHA, Carman Hall, the Triad and Pemberton Hall endorsed Holden, Dotzauer, Dersch and Chor, while the Greek Caucus endorsed Anderson, Dotzauer, Petrus and Remlinger for executive offices.

In addition to endorsing for the executive offices, RHA endorsed student senate candidates for the Residence Hall District and the At-Large District.

Candidates endorsed for the Residence Hall District were sophomores Alan Hargrave and Mark Hudson, junior Bill Bukowski and freshman David Contreras.

For senators in the At-Large District, the RHA endorsed sophomore John Grant, junior Mike Metz, freshmen Tim Olmsted and Dean Prokos and Beth Arensman.

The Triad also endorsed Prokos and Grant, Steve Zartler, a Triad resident, said Sunday.

The Lincoln-Stevenson-Douglas complex and the South Quad have not made endorsements yet, spokespersons said.

Spokespersons for Lawson, Taylor, Thomas and Andrews Hall were unavailable for comments on endorsements.

Works of music composer Vivaldi to be performed in faculty concert

by Sue Nasenbeny
A Music Department faculty performance of the works of composer Vivaldi will be offered at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Dvorak Concert Hall.

Admission to the concert, which is part of the University Board fine arts series, is 50 cents for students and $1 for non-students.

Robert Synder of the Music Department said Monday that the concert will feature sonatas, concertos and arias on the modern flute, the Wicks pipe organ, violin, cello, harpsichord and recorder.

Following the concert, a reception will be held with 13 music faculty members as hosts.

The opening number will feature a sonata played by graduate student Kate Stone, the only non-faculty performer in the concert, on the recorder.

Snyder said the recorder is an instrument of the 1700s and the piece is "intended to sound as it did in the Baroque period."

Following Stone, Synder will play a sonata on the flute. Then Gary Zwicky will play a concerto on the pipe organ as an arrangement of a Vivaldi orchestra piece.

After intermission, Snyder said Delbert Simon will sing three arias accompanied by Mary Kogen.

For the last piece, a trio consisting of Snyder on the flute, Ronald Kogen on the violin and Donald Tracy on cello with Zwicky on harpsichord will be performed.

Snyder said that although four people will play the piece, the harpsichord and cello are regarded as one instrument in that instance.

All pieces except the arias will be accompanied at the harpsichord by Zwicky, and Tracy will play cello on all pieces except the organ concertos and arias.

Pardee not showing sympathy with the loss of Tarkenton

CHICAGO (AP) - Coach Jack Pardee of the Chicago Bears doesn't like to see any player sustain an injury and sympathizes with Fran Tarkenton who suffered a fractured leg and is out for the season.

"But I don't feel sorry for the Minnesota Vikings," said Pardee, who this week must prepare his Bears to face the Vikings Sunday in an intra-divisional clash which could project the Bears into the title picture.

"Nobody has had the injuries we've had so I can't feel sorry for the Vikings," Pardee said. "We had a hard time working out last week and fielding a team. We didn't have enough guys to practice and had to use a lot of people running both our own plays and Kansas City's plays."

"But our guys showed me a lot by staying in there and not giving up,"

Pardee said. "They had every chance to fold. But they rose to the occasion and I think that will help to make them better players."

Whether the Bears rose to the occasion or were plain lucky is a matter of opinion, but it is true they had every opportunity to fold against the Chiefs.

They fell behind 17-0 in the first half but rallied to go ahead 21-20 on Walter Payton's third touchdown of the game 2:02 left. Kansas City came back to score with 24 seconds to play to regain the lead before Bob Avellini's desperation pass was gathered by Greg Latta in the end zone for a 28-27 triumph Sunday.

Volleyball squad falls in state tourney

by Julie Penne

Eastern's volleyball team ended its season in disappointment by failing to place in the Illinois Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (IAIWW) volleyball tournament last weekend at Carbondale.

Sixth seeded at the beginning of the tourney, the Panthers compiled a 1-1 record in pool competition, which led them to the quarterfinals against Illinois State University (ISU).

Eastern eliminated Bradley University 12-15, 15-8 and 15-2 in opening round play. The Panthers then fell to the University of Illinois for the second consecutive time this season, 15-5 and 15-5.

Coach Margie Wright said, "I didn't feel like we played as well as we had been during the season. The state tournament is a pressure situation, so some of that pressure got to us."

After the first pool, Eastern was seeded eighth and then lost to the eventual champion, ISU, 15-13, 15-2, 15-3.

Wright said, "That first game with Illinois State was a really close game. After that game, nothing seemed to go right for us."

The Panthers ended the season with a 29-8 record.

Rugby Club whips Chicago

by Carl Gerdovich

Dominating the second half of play, the Eastern Rugby Club closed out its regular season with a 32-7 thrashing over Chicago University Saturday afternoon.

The rugger's finished their fall season at 9-3-1 and throughout the season "developed as a team in the most remarkable way" the club's publicity director Vic Bobb said.

"For an inexperienced group of guys, this team matured faster than any I've seen," Bobb said. "They are very unselfish and really work at it."

Eastern scored early in Saturday's contest on a try by Bo Bo Davisson from five yards out. The Panthers gained possession on a penalty before Davisson pushed his way across. The conversion failed.

Five minutes later Al Gustafson scored following a pop kick. Gustafson, as he did against Western Illinois the week before, ran the ball across in the corner and then managed to avoid tacklers to center the ball for the try. Mike Hummert converted giving the Panthers a 10-0 lead.

"We made two mistakes that hurt us in the first half," Bobb said. "A penalty against us enabled them (Chicago) to stay within reach."

"We won the ball and in an attempt to kick it away our punter was hit as he let go of the ball and it dribbled into the endzone," Bobb explained. "They fell on it and suddenly it was 10-7."

After regrouping at the half, Eastern started immediately in opening the second period. Following a kick, Gig Flynn picked up a loose ball scrambling 30 yards for the try. Hummert again converted for a 16-7 Panther advantage.

Mark Springman's fine display of open-field running widened the gap for Eastern. Springman took the ball after a lineout rambling 25 yards for the score.

The Panthers tallied two more times on runs by Hummert and Chuck Squires.

"Our mistakes gave them what they had as far as points go," Bobb commented. "We started rough but put it together for an impressive win."

At left sophomore Marcus Potts finds the endzone on a three-yard run in the third quarter of Monday's junior varsity football game. It was Potts' second TD of the game. His first score came on a 54-yard romp to give Eastern a 7-0 halftime lead. On the right graduate assistant coach Hal Pigusch has the story of the game reflected on the scoreboard for him in Eastern's victory over the Indiana State University JV's 28-0. The win gave the JV's an undefeated record at 4-0-1. (News photos by John Kennedy)

Junior varsity gridders shutout ISU for undefeated season

by Ron Cohen

"Eastern football is not dead," was the reaction of junior varsity graduate assistant coach Hal Pigusch to his team's 28-0 trouncing of the Indiana State University junior varsity.

The highly emotional Eastern JV gridders ended its season undefeated at 4-0-1, and avenged an earlier tie, 14-14 at Terra Haute, Ind. Oct. 3, to the same I.S.U. JV team.

"These kids really wanted it bad,"

Pigusch said, "They're a great bunch, they wanted to prove they're winners and they did".

The Panthers were paced by halfback Marcus Potts who scored twice on runs of 54 and three yards, and totaled over 140 yards for the afternoon.

Pott's first score, a 54-yard jaunt turned out to be the only score in the first half giving Eastern a 7-0 halftime edge.

The Panthers wrapped up the game when they tallied twice in the fourth quarter, once a one yard sneak play by quarterback Chris Shelly making the score 21-0.

And then Chuck Wright took over the quarterback duties and connected on a 60 yard pass play to flanker Scott McGhee, which set up halfback Mike Thomas's nine-yard touchdown run.

Eastern also scored once in the third quarter on Pott's second T.D. at 4:57 which upped Eastern's lead at the time to 14-0.

Graduate assistant defensive coach Bob Blanchard praised his defense's "super effort," and credited the shutout, partially to the senior leadership of defensive end Tom Quinkert.

Blanchard attributed Indiana States 14 points in the first contest to the fact that the Eastern defense had not faced a wishbone offense before and needed the first half of that game to get used to it.

Eastern's offensive line of Eugene Hardison, Jim Spangler, Eric White, Carl Dobrich, Ken Smith, and Stan Gibson, continually opened huge holes for the ball carriers to run through, thus enabling the Panthers to move the ball freely.

Pigusch added that events in the past couple of days, particularly the resignation of head coach John Konstantinos, had made his players hungry to bring the campus a football winner.

National champions prove cross country IS a team sport

Anyone who does not consider cross country a team sport did not see Eastern win the NCAA Division II championship Saturday at Oak Brook.

For a long time coach Tom Woodall has preached that a cross country meet is much more than a contest for individuals, and Saturday his Panthers made believers out of everyone present at the Oak Brook Sports Core.

Early in the season I shrugged the Eastern mentor's continual emphasis on the team aspect as one of those pet phrases like "we play them one at a time" that all coaches like to use.

For a while I just thought the top Panther stars were also programmed to recite "it's the team that really matters, without the team winning I won't be happy."

But through the course of the season, it became more and more evident the team talk was more than just some trite fable.

For an individual's disappointment could always be lessened if the team did well, and likewise, some superb individual efforts were dampened by the Panthers defeats to the University of Illinois in the state championship meet and to the University of Wisconsin in a dual match.

Then came the national meet where the Panthers really put across their message.

The national meet was not just a race for the best seven men on the squad, but a collective effort of everyone on the cross country roster.

Panthers who were ousted for a spot on the national squad were right at their teammates side's with the enthusiasm as if they were competing themselves.

"The guys said they could not believe it," Woodall said. "It seemed like there wasn't a space of more than 10 yards where there wasn't someone there yelling for them."

Brian Nielsen

The thrill of victory was obviously not just confined to the meet's runnerup Joe Sheeran, who nabbed the highest place ever by a Panther harrier in a national meet, or the other five All-American's.

Sheeran, Casey Reinking, John Christy, John McInerney, and Duncan McHugh may have comprised the quintet that composed the remarkable 37 point total Eastern scored, but there were many others who also felt a part of the national championship, and rightfully so.

The two and a half dozen or so other Panthers on the roster were embracing each other and celebrating right along with the harriers who actually did the scoring on Saturday.

The current team was also joined by numerous former Panther harriers, who drove from distances as far as Memphis, Tenn.

Apparently, when you're once an Eastern harrier, you're one for life.

"What you saw here was more than an athletic contest," Woodall said. "It was so many people working together and showing so much togetherness."

"Of all my All-Americans, I can only think of three guys that didn't make it to the meet," the coach continued. "They really still feel apart of the family we feel we have here in cross country. And I think they've helped us to be so successful."

The Panthers' Joe Sheeran and Casey Reinking earned the right to compete in the NCAA Division II finals next Monday at Spokane, Wash. on the basis of their finish among the top six runners in the Division II championships.

They will be the only two Panthers to line up at the starting line in the meet, but they will still have the support of every other Eastern harrier behind them.
